

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 16, 2016

ST. THOMAS EPISCOPAL CHURCH TO HOST CHRISTMAS FAIR AND AUCTION BENEFITTING LOCAL SERVICE ORGANIZATION, AT HOME ON THE SOUND

Dozens of volunteer Christmas elves have prepared all year for St. Thomas Episcopal Church's upcoming Annual Christmas Fair and Auction which will be held on Saturday, December 3rd, from 10 am to 4 pm, in Heathcote Hall, on the corner of the Post Road and Mount Pleasant Avenue in Mamaroneck.

Visitors are warmly welcomed at this festive traditional fair and family event which supports a special community outreach effort each year. St. Thomas' elves have collected many unique treasures and will offer a wide range of items, including clothing; high end, vintage and costume jewelry; Christmas gifts; well-priced toys; beautiful holiday decorations; a tremendous selection of vintage items; coffee table books; and scrumptious baked goods. Shoppers will find truly unique and special gifts for even the most discerning people on a holiday shopping list!

A silent auction will be held from 10 am to 2 pm, featuring a variety of small and special items. The live auction, which includes antique furniture, collectibles, and works of art, starts at 1pm. Among the 80+ live auction items are a vintage Nichols and Stone Windsor rocking chair; beautiful lion bookends from the Chicago Art Institute; colored etchings by noted Judaica artist, Saul Raskin; gorgeous Federal-style table; vintage toys and housewares; plus crystal, sterling silver, furs, quilts, art nouveau, art deco and midcentury items.

Come early for the best selection and plan to stay for a while – the Fairside Café will be open throughout the day with delectable choices for breakfast and lunch.

Bring the kids along – in addition to a special booth chock full of new and nearly-new toys, many other fair items are priced appropriately for a child's holiday shopping budget. And, so parents can enjoy the auction, there will be free babysitting and crafts upstairs from noon to 4 pm.

St. Thomas is pleased to announce that Christmas Fair proceeds will support At Home on the Sound, a local non-profit serving older adults by providing a variety of individual and group services to help them to age in-place right here in Larchmont and Mamaroneck.

For more information, please contact St. Thomas Church at (914) 698-0300 or e-mail office@saintthomasmrk.org